Company of Anointed Leading Ladies

Have you ever listened to the ocean in a sea shell? If you listen carefully, you can hear the sound of the waves as they wash over the shore. If you are not careful to listen, the sound is lost in the noise around you. Hearing God's call on your heart is much the same. As women and leaders, it is imperative that we set aside times from our normal routines and responsibilities to replenish ourselves, both spiritually and physically. The CALL provides the opportunity to rediscover God's purposes and plans for your life and calling.

Please join me for a time to Refresh, Revive, Replenish and Relate with peers in a relaxing, safe and confidential atmosphere in beautiful Marco Island, Florida.
